ORTHOPAEDIC SECTION

ABOUT THE SECTION
The Orthopaedic Section is an advocate and resource for practitioners of orthopedic physical therapy, fostering high-quality patient and client care and promoting professional growth. When you join the Orthopaedic Section, you’ll join an active network of more than 20,000 physical therapy practitioners who treat patients and clients with musculoskeletal conditions.

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN
Take advantage of the many valuable professional resources available to members of the Orthopaedic Section, including:

- Subscriptions to the Journal of Orthopaedic and Sports Physical Therapy and Orthopaedic Physical Therapy Practice as part of your membership
- Eligibility for volunteer leadership positions
- Opportunity to apply for the section’s grant program, which funds the clinical research of its members
- Member discounts available for the section’s independent study courses, programming, and event registrations
- Opportunity to be selected for a section award recognizing student accomplishments, distinguished service, education, research, and more
- Receive a discount on support materials for residency and fellowship program credentialing
- Access to evidence-based clinical practice guidelines and implementation tools
- Opportunity to participate in a return-to-school reduced-dues program for new professionals
- Registration discounts for the annual Orthopaedic Section meeting and APTA’s Combined Sections Meeting

Membership also allows you to join any of the section’s special interest groups at no additional cost: Animal Rehabilitation, Foot and Ankle, Occupational Health, Pain Management, Performing Arts, Imaging, and Residency and Fellowship.
