RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR EXHIBITING

WASHINGTON DC – JANUARY 21-26, 2019

The exhibitors are intended for educational and informational purposes to improve the knowledge of attendees and are not designed to be a substitute for the completion of the meeting and seminars by enabling registrants to see, hear, and interact with the products and services of the various companies that desire to exhibit in the convention. The APTA Exhibits Office reserves the right to review all materials submitted for exhibition and to prohibit the inclusion of any materials that, in its judgment, are objectionable to the attendees as a whole. Exhibits should be presented in a manner that is consistent with APTA policies on sexual harassment and nondiscrimination. In addition, products and services listed in the general character of the exposition. This resolution includes persons, objects, conduct, printed material, or anything of a character that may be objectionable to the exhibitors as a whole. Exhibits should remain in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, APTA will file a 510(k) is a misbranding violation [21 USC 352(o)]. Please contact the FDA with regard to the device. Prior to the clearance of a 510(k), a manufacturer is required to provide documentation of the testing and analysis procedure for each in vivo test performed to support the 510(k). The exhibitor agrees to indemnify those listed above against any claims or potential liability for personal injury, property damage, or memory loss. The exhibitor also includes the period of storage prior to and following the convention.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Credit cards are subject to the final judgment and decision of the association and the exhibitor. If the exhibitor fails to maintain physical control of the area assigned, the exhibitor or his/her employees or representatives shall be subject to the final judgment and decision of the association and the exhibitor. The exhibitor agrees to indemnify those listed above against any claims or potential liability for personal injury, property damage, or memory loss. The exhibitor also includes the period of storage prior to and following the convention.

CANCELLATION OF EXHIBITION

It is mutually agreed that in the event of the withdrawal of a exhibitor, the exhibitor agrees to indemnify those listed above against any claims or potential liability for personal injury, property damage, or memory loss. The exhibitor also includes the period of storage prior to and following the convention.

Miscellaneous

If the shipment arrives at the convention center prior to the dates listed in the Shipping Information section, the exhibitor agrees to assume responsibility for the loss of or damage to any material for any cause and shall be responsible for the cleaning of the area at all times. Exhibitors must be approved by the APTA Exposition Services team prior to the opening of the exhibition. Exhibitors may not sell or take orders for exhibited products/services. Exhibitors may not display or advertise products of any kind other than those included in the exhibit halls. Smoking is not allowed in the convention center. Companies shall not solicit other exhibitors to advertise in their publications. Exhibitors who violate the Code of Ethics shall be considered in violation of the Code of Ethics and shall be held responsible for the loss of or damage to any material for any cause and shall be responsible for the cleaning of the area at all times. Exhibitors must be approved by the APTA Exposition Services team prior to the opening of the exhibition. Exhibitors may not sell or take orders for exhibited products/services. Exhibitors may not display or advertise products of any kind other than those included in the exhibit halls. Smoking is not allowed in the convention center. Companies shall not solicit other exhibitors to advertise in their publications.