The exhibits are intended for educational and informational purposes to improve physical therapy education, research, and practice. They should comprehensively address the following areas: theory, research, education, evaluation, treatment, and practice. The exhibits should be timely and relevant to physical therapy and should not contain misrepresentations or misleading information.

Any exhibits may be considered for inclusion in the following categories. Companies that show exhibits, oral sessions, booth sales, personal sales, group exhibits, or physical displays may be asked to complete and submit the following Application Form. All exhibits should be approved by the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA). Exhibits should be approved by APTA Exposition Services team. All exhibits must be approved by the APTA Exposition Services team.

The APTA and the APTA Exposition Services team reserve the right to render all exhibits in any manner they deem appropriate. The policies stated in the Rules and Regulations constitute a bona fide part of the contract for exhibit space.

The exhibitors are required to follow all rules and regulations outlined in this document. Exhibitors who do not comply with these rules and regulations may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, APTA will make all reasonable efforts to accommodate people with disabilities. Please email exhibit@apta.org with your request.

Referrals

If an exhibitor application is approved a company must be an active member of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) to be eligible to apply for exhibit space. You must be an active APTA member to be eligible to apply for exhibit space. All exhibitors must be approved by the APTA Exposition Services team. All exhibitors must be approved by the APTA Exposition Services team. All exhibitors must be approved by the APTA Exposition Services team.

RESERVATIONS AND PAYMENTS

Payment of Previous Debts

Prior to the date of the cancellation of the APTA 2020 due to circumstances beyond APTA’s control, including, but not limited to, the death, illness, or retirement of key employees, the beginning or any opening or continuity, or any other aspect of the conference, and any related business activities, the showing and exhibition of products, services, or other goods by the exhibitors, the exhibitors agree to indemnify and hold harmless the APTA, the exhibitor(s), the exhibitor’s agents, employees, and contractors, and all other persons and entities who are found to be liable in connection with any claims, losses, damages, or expenses incurred by any person or entity associated with the conference or the APTA, including, without limitation, the fees charged by the APTA for space and advertising in the Conference Program, and any other fees charged by the APTA for services provided during the conference.

Failure to pay any amount owed to the APTA or to the APTA Exposition Services team may result in the exhibitor’s exhibits being removed from the exhibit area. Additionally, the exhibitor may be prohibited from exhibiting at future conferences.

To ensure proper preparation and participation in the APTA 2020, exhibitors must pay all fees in full prior to the date of the conference. All fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. Any changes to the date or location of the conference must be approved by the APTA. The exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the APTA, the exhibitor(s), the exhibitor’s agents, employees, and contractors, and all other persons and entities who are found to be liable in connection with any claims, losses, damages, or expenses incurred by any person or entity associated with the conference or the APTA, including, without limitation, the fees charged by the APTA for space and advertising in the Conference Program, and any other fees charged by the APTA for services provided during the conference.

Rules and Regulations for Exhibiting

Policy statements below constitute a bona fide part of the contract for exhibit space.

Failure to Occupy Space

Upon payment of all fees, exhibitors are entitled to use exhibit space. The APTA reserves the right to refuse access to exhibit space to any exhibitor who fails to occupy the exhibit space as scheduled.

Code of Personal Conduct

The exhibitor agrees to comply with all rules and regulations established by the APTA and the APTA Exposition Services team. Any exhibitor who fails to comply with these rules and regulations may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

The exhibitor agrees to comply with all rules and regulations established by the APTA and the APTA Exposition Services team. Any exhibitor who fails to comply with these rules and regulations may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

The exhibitor agrees to comply with all rules and regulations established by the APTA and the APTA Exposition Services team. Any exhibitor who fails to comply with these rules and regulations may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

Use only APTA Official Vendors

Official Vendors are those vendors that have been pre-approved by the APTA. The use of non-Official Vendors is prohibited without the prior written consent of the APTA. Any exhibitor who uses a non-Official Vendor may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

Official Vendors are those vendors that have been pre-approved by the APTA. The use of non-Official Vendors is prohibited without the prior written consent of the APTA. Any exhibitor who uses a non-Official Vendor may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

Official Vendors are those vendors that have been pre-approved by the APTA. The use of non-Official Vendors is prohibited without the prior written consent of the APTA. Any exhibitor who uses a non-Official Vendor may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

Official Vendors are those vendors that have been pre-approved by the APTA. The use of non-Official Vendors is prohibited without the prior written consent of the APTA. Any exhibitor who uses a non-Official Vendor may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.

Official Vendors are those vendors that have been pre-approved by the APTA. The use of non-Official Vendors is prohibited without the prior written consent of the APTA. Any exhibitor who uses a non-Official Vendor may be subject to penalty or exclusion from the conference.