ABOUT THE SECTION

The Academy of Oncologic Physical Therapy advances physical therapist practice for persons affected by cancer and chronic illness by maximizing movement and wellness across the life span. When you join the academy, you’ll join an active network of physical therapy practitioners who provide services for cancer survivors and patients who are under hospice care or are living with HIV/AIDS-related diseases.

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN

Many valuable professional resources are available to members of the Academy, including:

- Access to the latest oncology-related research through the journal Rehabilitation Oncology
- Access to community listserv
- Discounts on academy educational resources and programming, including online and regional course registrations
- Access to practice updates, announcements, continuing education information, and member announcements
- Eligibility for academy awards recognizing outstanding research, humanitarian efforts, service to the academy, and more
- Collaboration and dialogue with peers through the academy’s electronic discussion forums
- Eligibility for volunteer leadership positions
- Discounted registration for APTA’s Combined Sections Meeting and preconference course(s)

Membership also gives you access to the academy’s special interest groups: Balance and Falls, HIV Disease, Hospice and Palliative Care, Lymphedema and Pediatric Oncology.
